

State	Housing-Related Services Approved	Eligible Populations	Financing
Arizona Approved October 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· A maximum of six months of rent or temporary housing.</li> <li>· Utilities.</li> <li>· “Pre-tenancy and tenancy sustaining services, including tenant rights education and eviction prevention.”</li> <li>· Assistance with housing navigation.</li> <li>· Moving expenses.</li> <li>· Housing deposits.</li> <li>· Home accessibility modifications.</li> <li>· Home remediation services, when necessary for the recipient’s health.</li> </ul>	For rent/temporary housing and utilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Individuals transitioning out of institutional care or congregate settings.</li> <li>· Individuals who are homeless, at risk of homelessness, or transitioning out of emergency shelters.</li> <li>· Individuals transitioning out of the child welfare system.</li> </ul> Eligibility standards will be updated in post-approval protocols to be approved by CMS.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Up to $482 million can be spent on these housing services over the five-year demonstration.</li> <li>· Up to $67.5 million is available to support infrastructure for housing services over the five-year demonstration.</li> </ul>
California Approved December 2021 Amended January 2023	Short-term stays in certain facilities where homeless Medicaid enrollees can continue their recovery after being discharged from a hospital or other inpatient setting, specifically: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Recuperative care for up to 90 days.</li> <li>· Short-term housing for up to six months.</li> </ul> Note: California provides a host of other housing services through Medicaid under ILOS authority, including housing transition navigation, tenancy supports, housing deposits, asthma remediation, and home modifications. All services are optional for managed care plans to provide, and some services may not be offered in every county.	Individuals who are homeless or at risk of homelessness and have medical needs significant enough to result in emergency department visits, hospital admissions, or other institutional care	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Up to $1.96 billion can be spent on services over the five-year demonstration.</li> <li>· Infrastructure for these services is funded under the $1.85 billion PATH (Providing Access and Transforming Health) initiative; a subset of this amount will support these and other housing-related services in California Medicaid.</li> </ul>
Oregon Approved September 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· A maximum of six months of rent or temporary housing.</li> <li>· Utilities.</li> <li>· “Pre-tenancy and tenancy-sustaining services, including tenant rights education and eviction prevention.”</li> <li>· Assistance with housing navigation.</li> <li>· Moving and other expenses, including security deposits, furniture, etc.</li> </ul>	For rent/temporary housing and utilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Individuals who have just spent time in a congregate facility or other institution.</li> <li>· Those who are homeless or may become homeless, or who are leaving an emergency shelter.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Up to $904 million can be spent on all authorized health-related services, including these housing services, over the five-year demonstration.</li> <li>· Up to $119 million is available to support infrastructure for all health-related services over the five-year demonstration.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Housing deposits.</li> <li>· Appliances, including air conditioners, heaters, humidifiers, etc., when needed for the recipient’s health.</li> <li>· Home accessibility modifications.</li> <li>· Remediation services, when needed for health (e.g., addressing mold or poor ventilation).</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Individuals who are leaving the child welfare system.</li> </ul> For other services, target populations are not currently limited by the terms of the waiver.
North Carolina Approved October 2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Short-term post hospitalization housing for up to six months.</li> <li>· Tenancy support and sustaining services.</li> <li>· Housing quality and safety improvement services.</li> <li>· Housing deposits.</li> </ul> Note: Services are available only in certain pilot counties.	Individuals who have certain health conditions or other qualifying circumstances, including but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Multiple or significant uncontrolled chronic conditions.</li> <li>· Recurrent visits to the emergency department or hospital.</li> <li>· High-risk pregnancy.</li> <li>· Current or former placement in foster care.</li> <li>· Past of low birth weight or prematurity (for pregnant people).</li> <li>· Past adverse childhood experiences.</li> </ul> As well as having an additional “risk factor”: being either housing, food, or transportation insecure, or endangered by interpersonal violence.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Up to $650 million can be spent on all authorized health-related services and capacity-building funds, including these housing services, over the five-year demonstration.</li> <li>· Up to $100 million of that funding can be used to support infrastructure for all health-related services over the five-year demonstration.</li> </ul>